Extensive Fire at Schuylkill, New York.

Coming Races at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Sept. 29.—The fall trotting meeting of the Chester Driving park will be held October 26 to 29. The entries made are very satisfactory, there being in the eight races fifty-five entries. Honnis, Charley Ford and Hopeful are in the free for all, and Voltaire, Hambletonian, Bashaw, Monroe Chief, Bonesetter and Will Cody are in the 2:19 class. In the free for all pacing race, the entries are Sorrel Dan, Sleepy Tom, Mattie Hunter, Lucy and Rowdy Boy, Maud S. being barred. It is likely that she will be brought out for an exhibition trot.

Casualties.

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—James Forrester and wife, of Laporte county, who came here to attend the fair, went to their bed at the Pyle house last night, blowing out the gas, instead of shutting it off in the usual way. At ten o'clock this morning they were discovered unconscious, but still breathing. Forrester died soon after and his wife is still alive, but sinking. Mr. Forrester was upwards of eighty years of age.

Alvin E. Barney, a patient at the insane hospital from Laporte county, was caught in the belting in the engine room this morning and instantly killed, his head being crushed.

A Deserved Sentence.

Louisville, Sept. 29.—John Vanderhide, on trial at Shelbyville, was to-day found guilty and sentenced to death. On the 9th of last July Vanderhide escaped from the penitentiary, where he was serving a term for robbery. On the day following, while passing along a secluded road to Louisville, he met a little daughter of Charles Johnson in the neighborhood of Brownsboro, whom he ravished and murdered.

Weather Report.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—For lower lake region, westerly to southerly winds, partly cloudy weather, stationary or slowly rising temperature in eastern portion, rising, followed by falling barometer.

FOREIGN NEWS.

London, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Chalkis reports that Greek recruits are pouring in by thousands. The army will number 40,000 men.

London, Sept. 30.—Hanlan took a walking exercise this morning, during which he met and greeted Trickett. At 11 o'clock he launched his boat, built at New Castle, and pulled from Putney to Hammersmith and back alone, and then repeated the journey with Harry Thomas. He was in all, afloat one hour and twenty minutes. He is well satisfied with his New Castle boat, but will probably row the race in that built at Toronto. There was a heavy mist on the river, but Hanlan, pulling a leisurely stroke, seemed to get any amount of way on his boat. The opinion was loudly expressed that his style is prettiest ever seen.

London, Sept. 30.—The bullion in the bank of England has decreased £179,000 during the past week.

Rev. John Waddington, an eminent divine, is dead.

The steamships Canadian, from Quebec; Leipsig, from Baltimore, and Queen, from New York, have arrived.

Constantinople, Sept. 30.—Robbers assassinated the wife of the Russian consul at Versailles.

A Paris dispatch, dated yesterday says Count de Chambord completes to-day his 60th year. The occasion was celebrated by about a dozen banquets in various parts of Paris, and the commemorative mass at the Church St. Germain des Pres was attended by 1,000 persons. Mass was also celebrated at Versailles, Marseilles, Bandeau and other towns.

"Italy," the Most Powerful Iron Clad Ever Constructed in London.

London, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Granasa says: "It is now generally believed that fleets will not go to Dulcigno. A correspondent at Rome telegraphs a denial that Garibaldi will leave Coperera for Genoa next Saturday. Rumors are rife in regard to his intentions, and also of revolutionary movements. Whether the rumors are true or false, I have reason to believe that the Government has adopted vigorous precautions with reference to them. The iron clad Italy, of 14,000 tons, covered throughout with armor three feet thick has been successfully launched, in the presence of King Humbert and an immense crowd of people. The Italy is the most powerful iron clad ever constructed here."

The Rumored Attack of the Cheyenne Indians Denounced.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 30.—Col. Hunt Indian agent, at Wichtaw agency, Indian Territory, emphatically denies the report recently telegraphed from Texas, that Cheyenne Indians had made an attack on Commissary supplies there and committed other outrages, he says the whole story is absolutely false.

Collision.

Cincinnati, Sept. 29.—Two freights came in collision, three miles this side of Hamilton, on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road, this afternoon, causing a loss of $30,000. No one was injured. This collision was caused by the misunderstanding of a telegraph order for running the southern-bound train.

Fire Record.

Schuylkill, N. Y., Sept. 30.—A fire broke out this morning and destroyed several stores, causing a loss of about $50,000.

LATEST CITY NEWS.

Wm. Hiliker—boy.

H. J. Trentman is in Chicago.

Local politics are bubbling over.

Dr. Dinnen left to-day for Chicago.

The city was full of farmers to-day.

The justices' court: are painfully quiet.

There was an excursion to Chicago yesterday.

The Murray shops are running day and night.

Judge Pratt has possession of the "rebel" flag.

There was a wedding at the Cathedral to-day.

Justice Pratt presided at police court this morning.

The market receipts this morning amounted to $5.30.

The lobby at the Council last evening was poorly filled.

S. E. Morse of the Kansas City Star will be in the city next week.

There was a large number of emigrants on No. 1 to-day.

The Council arranged last evening for an election in the Ninth ward.

Herman Nierman and Annie Throckmorton were married Tuesday evening.

Jim Blaine will be in attendance upon the Radical rally at Portland next week.

A little girl fell from a wagon on East Washington street, near Clinton, to-day noon, and broke her wrist.

Fred Emerick entertained a number of friends at his residence last evening, previous to his departure for Canada.

This city is singularly blessed as regards the visits of the fire fiend, not a fire of any importance having occurred in this city for the past month with the exception of the Eckert blaze.

The contest for councilman in the Ninth ward is becoming very interesting. An active canvass is being made by the friends of all the aspirants to the position, and the fight on election day will be a lively one.

An Infamous Lie.

The telegram in the Chicago Times of yesterday, sent by its correspondent here, created intense excitement, and was the prevailing topic of discussion upon the streets. Republicans and Democrats alike denounced it in the strongest terms and its author was soundly condemned for causing such a barefaced falsehood to find its way into the columns of the Times.

There was no foundation for it whatever, and it was purely the offspring of the writer's personal hatred towards everything Democratic, which he has displayed on previous occasions. The circulation of the Times extending as it does to almost every city in the United States, spread the falsehood everywhere, and although the statement may be corrected, still the injury can not wholly be repaired.

A correspondent should be truthful always, and one who can not tell the truth should not be tolerated.

That Rebel Flag.

Learning that the so-called "rebel" flag, of which an account was given in yesterday's Chicago Times, wherein it was stated that the flag was borne by the Williamsport delegation in the procession on Tuesday, A SENTINEL reporter wended his way to Justice Pratt's office this morning for the purpose of gazing upon the obnoxious emblem. When he arrived the dispenser of justice was engaged in exhibiting the flag to a large crowd which had congregated in front of his office. Several persons in the crowd, who were really under the impression that there was a rebel flag in Pratt's possession, turned away disgusted when they inquired for it and he pointed to the stars and stripes, as the flag that, in the estimation of the Chicago Times correspondent here, was a rebel one. How any person having the slightest regard for truth could permit himself to cause the report to be circulated that the flag was any other than the National colors, is something beyond our power to comprehend.

Home for the Friendless.

There will be a meeting in the interests of the "Home for the Friendless," on Friday, Oct. 1st at 3 p. m. in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian church. All who are interested in the welfare and success of the institution are cordially invited to be present.

By order of the President.

Hancock and English Drum Corps.

All members are requested to report at Central Committee Rooms at 7:30 o'clock sharp this evening for rehearsal and business.

By order of

T. J. Shelvey,

Drum Major.

An attempt was made to burglarize the residence of Charles Holm, on Chicago street, last night, but the burglars were frightened off before they succeeded in obtaining an entrance.

Notice

After October 1st, the office of Dr. Walsheimer will be closed for an indefinite period, on account of the doctor going to be absent from the city.

Foreign, General and Miscellaneous.

Pan Presbyterian Council.

Philadelphia, Sept. 30.—Prof. Watta, of Belfast, presided at the morning session of the Pan Presbyterian Council. The committee on creeds and confessions read a communication from the Reformed Presbyterian of Philadelphia, making application for representation in the council, declaring its creed to be in conformity with the consensus of the reformed confessions, and agreeing to accept the constitution of alliance. The representatives of the Presbytery were admitted. Dr. Brownson submitted a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to prepare some expression that would go forth to the world as utterance of the council on the subject of Sabbath observance. Referred to business committee. Rev. Dr. J. Murray Mitchell, of Edinburgh, read a report of the committee on foreign missionary work. The report discussed the subject in all its bearings, including the best means of raising funds, modes of conducting missionary enterprises, and the relations of missions to home churches, etc. The report suggested the establishment of a great training college at Peking, China, and urged the more energetic prosecution of mission work in heathen and pagan countries. The report stated that two million pagans had been rescued from darkness in the past seventy years by the Protestant missionaries and referred to greater facilities and advantages that may be now enjoyed by Mission workers. Rev. Dr. Paxton May, D. D., of New York, submitted from the American portion of the committee a history of mission enterprises connected with the following churches: Presbyterian church, of Canada; United Presbyterian church in the United States; Reformed Dutch church, Reformed Presbyterian church, (General Synod) Associate Reformed church, Presbyterian church north and Presbyterian church south. A summary of statistics submitted in the report may be thus stated: number of Missionaries in the field, 195; native missionaries, 135; native licentiates and preachers, 198; medical missionaries and teachers, 118; American women connected with missions, 266; native teachers and bible readers, 894; communicants, 18,371; scholars in day schools, 12,987.

The entire party left this morning and will proceed directly to Portland.

Fight with Indians.

Tucson, Arizona, Sept. 30.—Two miners report that General Carr had a fight with a small party of Victor's band, eighteen in number, in the Hatchet mountains, and killed them all.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

A Lady Severely Injured by Falling from a Wagon.

This afternoon about two o'clock while a woman, whose name is thought to be Petier, was sitting in a spring wagon in front of the Fruit House, a farmer's team coming east on Berry street, through the carelessness of the driver, ran into the vehicle and frightened the horse attached thereto. The animal became unmanageable and backing up, made a sudden turn, throwing the lady out, she alighting on her head and shoulders. The bystanders, who witnessed the affair, thought she was killed, as she lay perfectly motionless. Several persons quickly went to her assistance, and lifting her up conveyed her into a store, from whence she was subsequently taken to the house of a friend, where medical aid was summoned, and an examination of her injuries revealed the fact that her collar bone had been broken, besides which she sustained other severe injuries on the head. Her residence is not known.

PRESIDENT HAYES went from California to Oregon in a stage coach.

THE Pittsburgh Gazette and other papers claimed Garfield to be in favor of free trade in 1877.

LODGE MOUNT MORRIS, a landlord in Galway, Ireland, was murdered by his tenants a few days ago.

NE-ROES, it is said, are daily coming into this State from Kentucky, to vote the Republican ticket.

THE constitutional amendment repudiating a part of the Arkansas debt was defeated by seven thousand majority.

HENRY WARD BEECHER says: "General Hancock's views and intentions in relation to Southern war claims are good."

It is said that P. T. Barnum, now seventy-one years old, has entered into a new circus partnership, which is to continue ninety-nine years.

REPUBLICANS concede that a fair vote and honest count at the coming election, will give the State to the Democrats by ten thousand majority.

GREAT land meetings are still being held in the disaffected parts of Ireland condemning the Liberal Government for following in the footsteps of its predecessor.

GENERAL HANCOCK's letter on Southern war claims is considered satisfactory to every one, who has the manhood to acknowledge the honesty and integrity of the hero of Gettysburg.

GEN. GARFIELD, in a speech on April 1st, 1870, said: "Free trade has many advocates, and much can be said in its favor." Was he sincere then, and when did he change his views?

GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS, says the Chicago Times, now sits under the political teachings of the man who characterized him one year ago as the mean milliner. Events take curious turns sometimes.

BUSINESS MEN are not so much opposed to a change in government affairs as claimed by Republicans. They do not claim to be in the larger cities; and in our city, at the grand Democratic rally, business men were in the procession, and had their dwellings and places of business festooned and decorated with evergreens, Hickory boughs and American flags.

HON. HUGH McCULLOCH, ex-Secretary of the United States Treasury, presided at a Republican mass meeting at Cooper institute last evening, and got off a little twaddle as follows: "I would not have been among the mourners if Tilden had been elected four years ago. A change then would have been beneficial, but a change now would result in evil to the country. Hayes was no choice of mine, but his administration rivals the best, not excepting the first." Mr. McCulloch can probably dive deeper in the muddy pool of politics, stay under longer, and come out dryer than any other man in the business.

NOTHING has happened in Indiana since 1876 to strengthen the Republican party, and there is nothing now transpiring in the 'political' canvass that leads any one to believe that the party is gaining strength. On the contrary, members of that party are leaving it every day, and will work and vote for the Democracy. Never, during the past quarter of a century have Democratic prospects for success appeared brighter, and as the time for holding the election approaches the skies look brighter still, for the grandest victory for the Democratic party that has yet occurred in this State.

GREENBACKERS in Maine have united with the Democrats in supporting an electoral ticket composed of Greenbackers and Democrats. Both Democrats and Greenbackers are opposed to Republican extravagance and misrule. Both are opposed to sectionalism and a centralization of power, favor the interest of working men, claim that labor shall be protected and provided for as well as capital, want a good and liberal government, sound currency, sufficient for all the business purposes of the country, and there can be no good reason why the two parties should not affiliate.

Letter from General Hancock.
Governor's Island, New York,
Harbor, Sept. 24, 1880.

Hon. F. P. Randall, Ft. Wayne, Ind.:
DEAR SIR:—I regret that my engagements prevent acceptance of the invitation to be present at your grand rally to come off at Fort Wayne on the 28th instant. Please express to all concerned my hearty thanks for the invitation, and my best wishes for the success of the cause which we all have so much at heart.

Yours very truly,
W. S. HANCOCK.

"A LARGE majority of the great thinking men of the present day are leading in the direction of what is called free trade."—Garfield's Speech, April 1, 1870. The General, however, is not leading in that direction since "Republicans have placed him on the track for the White House," which he will never reach.

"THE Government can never pay a debt, grant a pension or reward of any sort, for waging war upon its own existence. Nor could I be induced to approve or encourage the payment of such debt, pension or reward. No body wants such unnatural action."—General Hancock's Letter of September 23.

WORKING MEN know their best interest, and are solid with the Democratic party this time. They do not desire a strong centralized government, a nation with a big "N," an empire, as Republicans advocate; but a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

In a single line of General Hancock's letter on the payment of Southern claims he disposes of thousands of Republican campaign speeches charging the Democratic party to be in favor of paying those claims.

SENATOR BLAINE in his speeches dwells upon the manner in which the Republican vote was wiped out in Alabama and Arkansas, but does not venture an explanation as to what became of it in Maine.

"In relation to 'Union war claims' the Government's obligations to its defenders come first. They are lasting and sacred."—General Hancock's Letter of September 23.

CHARLES LIVINGSTON, who attempted to fast in imitation of Dr. Tanner, has been recognized as a bigamist and prosecuted.

THE Greenbackers of New Hampshire and South Carolina have put full tickets in the field.

Finding Lost Diamonds.

Mrs. A. E. Hanna, who on Thursday last missed her $400 set of diamonds from the bed-room of her residence in Shermerhorn street, Brooklyn, and then caused the arrest of her chambermaid, Louisa Eckert, aged 19, daughter of ex-Alderman Eckert, formerly a Rockaway hotel keeper, yesterday sent word to Police Superintendent Campbell that she had found the diamonds on the top of the window sash in her room. Mrs. Hanna put the diamonds under her pillow when she went to sleep, but she missed them the next morning after Louisa Eckert had made the bed, and when she inquired about them the girl said that she took them from the bed and placed them upon the mantelpiece or upon the bureau, she could not tell which. After a thorough search the diamonds were not found, and the chambermaid was arrested.

Miss Eckert is a bright, intelligent young woman. She formerly assisted her father at his hotel in Rockaway. She was taken to the police station, and then to police headquarters. She protested her innocence, but Superintendent Campbell told her that as she was the last person who had seen the diamonds, if Mrs. Hanna pressed the charge, she might have to go to prison. The girl broke into tears, and continued to protest her innocence.

"Are you willing to search for the diamonds yourself?" asked the chief of police.
"Certainly," said she.
The superintendent then directed a policeman, instead of taking the girl to court, to go to Mrs. Hanna's residence with her, and to permit her to move freely about in search of the diamonds, but not to intrude upon her. Mrs. Hanna was also requested to give the girl free range of the rooms in her search.

"You know," said the chief of police, "that these articles, being small, are apt to get into corners you least expect, and this girl probably knows more about the house than you do."

Miss Eckert went with the policeman, and was permitted to search for the diamonds as closely as Mrs. Hanna had done, but she did not find them. After Miss Eckert went to court Mrs. Hanna found the diamonds upon the top of a window sash, which she says, in the use of the room, she had raised and lowered many times. Having recovered her property she would not press the complaint of grand larceny against the girl, and Justice Bloom discharged her.

Where They Put Their Millions.

Within two years William K. Vanderbilt has purchased more than two thousand acres of land at Oakdale and expended $150,000 in improvements. His neighbor, George L. Lorillard, has a complete home in a large tract of land, with residence, out-buildings, stables, racing grounds, drives, shooting grounds and park, which cost a quarter of a million dollars. Henry B. Hyde's country residence at Bay Shore is valued at a quarter of a million. The estate of the Wagstaffs rents for $15,000 a year. Between Babylon and Bay Shore Mr. Havemeyer has invested $100,000, and is now owner of Oak Island, lying east of Long Beach, where he proposes to spend $200,000 in hotels by next season. The Wa Wa Yanda club, the recent occupants, had made an outlay of $25,000 in buildings.

The Trial of Harry English.

One of the best known characters in the vicinity of Bradford, Pa., is Harry English, whose deeds and disposition have gained him the name of being a desperate outlaw. The crime which gained him the greatest notoriety was a murder committed on the 17th of April last. He had been charged with committing a forgery, and officers had been detailed to arrest him. They pursued him and cornered him in his house. They fired at the forger and he returned their fire, wounding a constable named Warnth so that he died. English then took to the woods, and despite the efforts made to capture him, made his way to Michigan. There he was arrested on the 17th of July, three months after the commission of the crime. He was returned to Ridgeway, Pa., and imprisoned, and his trial began Wednesday last. The prosecution presented testimony showing that English fired the bullet which resulted in the death of Warnth. The counsel for English stated that the defense would attempt to prove that the parties seeking to arrest English were drunk at the time, that they did not tell him their mission until they had opened fire and wounded him, and that the killing of Warnth was an act of self-defense. The number of witnesses on both sides was small, and the summing up of counsel and the charge of the judge were completed by Saturday evening. A correspondent of the Bradford Era, writing from Emporium under date of the 26th, said that reliable information had been received to the effect that the jury had rendered a verdict of acquittal, and that the prisoner had been discharged. No confirmation of this report has been received, and as the case presented by the defense was considered a very weak one, there will be some hesitancy in believing the rumor.

A Singular Elopement.

A handsome young man sat day after day at a desk by the window of a store at Hillsboro, Ky. A handsome young woman sewed almost as constantly at the window of her residence, just across the street. They began a flirtation with handkerchiefs, developed it into courtship with notes and finally eloped—all without exchanging a spoken word until the night of the flight. Another remarkable feature was the fact that the woman was the wife of the Rev. James A. Caywood, a highly respected Methodist pastor.

A prize was offered at the La Porte, Ind., fair for the mother presenting the largest number of children. Mrs. John Line took the premium with nine, the ninth being born on the grounds a few hours before the award was made.

At Hot Springs, Ark., a worthless cur named "Shang the bootblack," shot a respectable colored man named John Summer, with whom he had an altercation.

A House of Gold Bricks.

There is a certain brick building in Cheyenne, not a thousand miles from the Leader office, which is almost worth its weight in gold. The bricks in its walls are at least impregnated with the precious metal to a valuable extent. The discovery was made accidentally by a gentleman who has an office near by. He frequently noticed shining yellow particles in the bricks, and, imagining the colors were gold, he took out a brick from the wall for the purpose of ascertaining the facts. This brick he first pulverized and then "panned out" the colors. He could not get rid of all the dirt, and concluded to send the residuum to an assayer in Denver. In a few days the assay certificate arrived and showed that there was thirty-eight cents' worth of gold in the brick. The gentleman then took out two other bricks in different parts of the building and pulverized and panned them as he did the first. The same assayer gave his certificate as follows: Sample No. 1, gold, forty-seven cents; sample No. 2, gold, twenty-four cents. With remarkable secrecy the gentleman proceeded to learn whence came the bricks. After considerable inquiry it was learned that the bricks were made in a yard that was formerly situated on Crow creek, near Cheyenne, out which is now obliterated. Further investigation among the oldest residents divulged the fact that mining was at one time carried on along Crow creek, but the miners thought that the pay wasn't big enough, and they therefore abandoned their claims. It was near these claims that the brickyard mentioned above was started, and that explains how gold dust got into the bricks.—Cheyenne (Wyo. T.) Leader.

The Pleasures of Hope.

When the body is bowed with pain an intense longing for relief brings hope. This may brighten the suffering, but it does not cure. At a time like this how welcome is such a friend as Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, bringing hope, health and happiness and the joys of a renewed life. sept20-cod&w2w.

Canada, where he will in the future reside.

A number of new uniforms have been ordered for the Hancock First Voters.
Stewart Woodford spoke his piece
at the Academy last night to a fair audience.

The number which will go to Indianapolis next Monday evening will be quite large.

The First Voters will probably go to Indianapolis if a rate of fare can be decided upon.

The colored horse thief Young, was released yesterday, the matter in which he was mixed up having been compromised.

The funeral of Robert Lowry took place to-day. The press of this city and the surrounding towns was well represented.

There was a slight wreck on the Wabash near Lagro yesterday. The ditching of several cars was the only damage done.

Healy, of the Gazette, is again
wrestling with the ague. Healy's constitution and this climate don't amalgamate, as it were.

The Chicago Times correspondent
here possesses a most reckless disregard for truth, and for its own sake
that paper should make a much needed change.

The report that the First Voters
Hancock club was about to disband is untrue in every particular. The club was never in a better condition
than at present.

A man named Waiden, claiming
to have been robbed of a gold watch,
was wandering around South Calhoun street last night in a maudlin condition. No one took any stock in his robbery story.

Little Nannie, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Fitzgibbon, presented the Hancock First Voters' club with a handsome bouquet last evening, and the patriotic little lady was vociferously cheered by the boys
in return.

A telegram to the SENTINEL from the New York Herald was received last evening, asking information as to the truth or falsity of the report that a rebel flag had been carried by one delegation in the procession here
last Tuesday.

A. J. Moynihan who has for some time past been studying medicine with
Dr. Dinnen, left to-day for Chicago,
where he will attend Rush Medical College an institution from which some of the best physicians in this country have graduated. "Andy" as he is familiarly known, leaves behind him
a host of warm friends who regret his departure. He was formerly connected with the SENTINEL and is a young man, of extraordinary talent.
It was mainly through him that the First voters club of this city was formed. By his departure the Mc-Hall Literary Association an organization of great merit, loses one of its most active members. The SENTINEL earnestly wishes him the fullest measure of success in the prosecution of his studies and hopes, that he may return to the city, as he undoubtedly will, a skilled physician.

Shober's Ship.
J. E. Shober, present city editor of the News, shovers his connection with that paper next Saturday and will shortly leave for Pueblo, Col., where he will take the editorship of the Chiefman, a paper of extended influence throughout the West.

Previous to his taking charge of the city department of the News, Mr. Shober was city editor of the SENTINEL,
and in that position, as in his present
one, he displayed great ability as a writer and proved himself to be a born journalist. The writer has had a long and intimate acquaintance with him and always found him to be a gentleman in the fullest sense of the term. By his departure the press of this city will lose one of its brightest ornaments. He is emphatically one of the best news gatherers ever connected with the Fort Wayne press.
His writings are all permeated with a vein of humor which renders them
pleasing and readable, and there is no doubt but what he will become as popular in his new field of labor as he was in this city. The SENTINEL wishes him the greatest success possible, and we believe that in this wish we are heartily seconded by every person who has ever known the hearty,
whole souled, genial Shober.

Woodford's Will.
The Academy of Music was partially filled last night with an audience that turned out for the purpose of hearing Stewart L. Woodford the man who came so near being nominated for Vice President by the Chicago convention. The speaker was escorted to the Academy by the Garfield First Voters and his appearance caused a thrill of enthusiasm to run through the assembly.

Of this speech little can be said any more than that it was the most partisan ever delivered in this city. There was not a spark of fairness in the entire argument which consisted of nothing but vile slings at Democracy and its principles.
The speaker had the supreme egotism to attribute every good result to the Republican party. Even his auditors, although they were unmistakably Republicans, (a fact which could be easily learned by their small number), did not seem to take much stock in the speaker's story. Although several attempts at cheering were made, that genuine, hearty enthusiasm, which is always lacking in those who feel that there is no hope for them, was conspicuous by its absence.

The Critterions.
Of the Critterion Comedy Company, which appear at the Grand Opera House in this city on Saturday, October 2, the Detroit Free Press
says:

"Freaks" was presented last night
for the first time in this city by the Critterions, and in it the perfect balance and thorough harmony of the company were again as strikingly shown as they were last season in "Caste" and "Our Boys," and early this week in the charming comedy of "Our Daughters." It is in nothing analogous to any piece which has yet been produced by them here, and, as the three previous evenings had been devoted to exquisite art, so last night was given up to irresistible mirth; the laughter was almost incessant, and the audience unmistakably delighted. The piece will be presented this and Saturday evenings, and it is doubtful if the Detroit public will have another opportunity this season for as hearty
a laugh as an evening with "Freaks"
affords.

Police Court.
Matt. Williams, a plain, unornamental, unsophisticated, unadulterated and unreliable drunk, was on hand this morning for the same old offense, and as a consequence, Matt.
will endeavor to do his share towards increasing the stone pile for the next 12 days.

Henry Berry, for committing a nuisance, was taxed $3.

Burglary at New Haven.
A telegram received this morning from S. M. Miller, residing at New Haven, contained the intelligence that a big robbery had been committed at that place early this morning. About two hundred dollars worth of stuff was secured, but the name of the party who was robbed or any further information upon the affair could not be obtained. The officers, however,
are engaged in the work of hunting
up the perpetrators.

An Uninteresting Session.
The Council met last evening in adjourned session, with his Honor in the chair and a full board present
with the exception of Councilman Bash.

A number of bills were read and allowed, and after making arrangements for the councilmanic election in the Ninth ward and awarding a number of contracts, a motion to adjourn was unanimously carried.

Burglars at Columbia City.
Early yesterday morning a burglar effected an entrance into the residence of Col. I. B. McDonald at Columbia city, and secured a number of valuable articles, while he was going through the house one of the inmates awoke
but the burglar eluded capture by a hasty departure. He was shortly captured, however, and was placed in jail. He gives his name as George Roberts, and on his person was found a valuable hunting case silver watch
together with a number of other articles.

Sabbath School Picnic.
Correspondence of the SENTINEL.
Hoagland, Ind., Sept. 25, 1880.—
We had the pleasure of participating in a Sabbath school picnic held in Mr.
Henry Hubler's grove in Marion township, about one-half mile west of Hoagland. Six Sunday schools, numbering about five hundred persons,
assembled at the church about 10 o'clock a. m. All marched in regular procession to the grove, where seats
had been provided and a stand erected, which was tastefully decorated with wreaths of flowers and evergreen,
and in the center was the word "Welcome," worked in living green. On the stand were seated the marshal of the day, Mr. Morgan Harrod; superintendents of the different schools,
and speakers of the day. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. A. W. Snyder, and by the entire assembly singing the hymn, "All hail the power of Jesus' name."
James English, Esq., then delivered
the address of welcome.

Then followed some very interesting addresses by Rev's. Agle and Snyder, also by Messrs. Boy, Essig and English, interspersed by vocal and instrumental music.

The Hoagland and Williamsport cornet bands were in attendance and rendered some very fine music.

At 12 o'clock they adjourned for dinner when all partook freely of "picnic goodies." We fancy some of the ladies resolved, (as they have done many times before) not to provide so profusely in the future for it seemed they repacked as much as they had brought. In the afternoon we were agreeably entertained by speeches and music. About 3 o'clock the company dispersed and all returned to their homes, feeling that they had spent a day of real profit and enjoyment. A VISITOR.
